

Flat Pack Container House

Size : 2.49M x 5.95M x 2.75M (H) - Flat Pack Container House

Advantages of Flat Pack Container House :

- The house has good bearing capacity and can be stacked with 2 layers, which is shock-resistant and has high stability.
- Beautiful appearance and good looking. The frame of detachable container is relatively thick, making the house look stronger.
- The materials of detachable container house are all integrated and modular. The specifications are uniform, the shape is uniform, and the force is high.
- Workers are easy to install: ordinary workers can install them without knowing the container welding technology. The materials of the packing boxes are bolted and assembled quickly. It is a veritable quick assembly house.
- Environmentally friendly products: Now that it has increased the control of welding and painting of container houses. The packing box frame is generally produced by installation friendly and meet up with environmental assessment.
- The Container is with and excellent drainage system, the container will not be affected by massive rain fall problem.
- The Container can be stack up in two level, and with strong hold. (staircase is sold seperately)
- All designed can be requested upon ordering.

