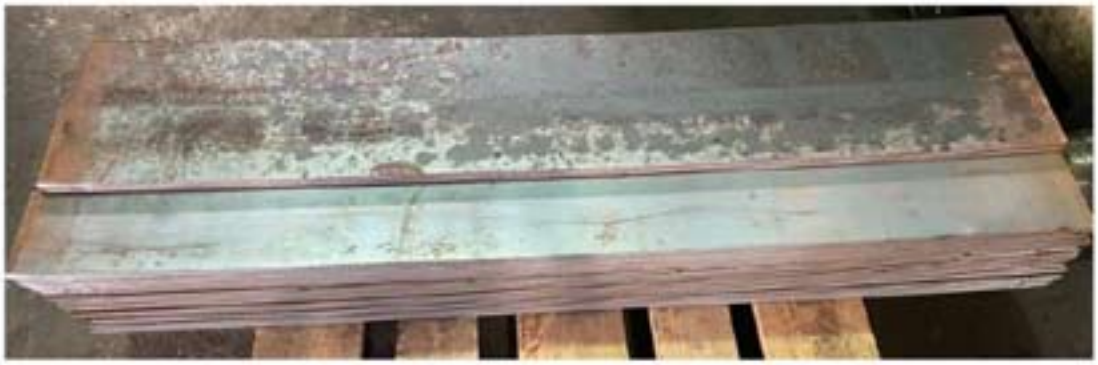
OUR SERVICES

SHEARING MACHINE

max thick : 12mm
max width : 3,200mm
net weight : 10,000kg


Shearing is the process of cutting sheet metal to size out of a larger roll or flat stock. As the material moves through the shear machine, cutting blades come together in order to fracture the material into separate, smaller pieces. This process creates quality clean cuts that can be repeated quickly.